

Research/Evaluation License Agreement for the LANCE Compiler System

This document states the conditions under which persons or organizations may use the LANCE compiler system for research or evaluation purposes. The LANCE compiler system comprises an ANSI C frontend and optimization tools, an intermediate representation (IR), a C++ library for IR processing, and a backend interface for assembly code generation.

Please tick one of the following:

- 1) Research license for universities and research institutes
- 2) Evaluation license for commercial users (see point 5. below)

Required OS platform:

- 1) Sun/Solaris
- 2) PC/Linux

Short description of intended use of LANCE:

1. The term LANCE denotes the LANCE compiler system software as it is distributed by the Licensor as a collection of files and derivatives of that collection of files created through textual modification.
2. The term Licensor refers to the authorized distributors of LANCE.
3. The term Licensee refers to the person, organization, or company licensing LANCE.
4. LANCE is made available free of charge for academic, research, and evaluation purposes only.
5. Commercial users may use LANCE for evaluation purposes for a period not exceeding 60 days from the date of delivery. After expiry, licensee may either purchase a full commercial license, or delete the LANCE software and confirm its deletion in written form.
6. The use of LANCE, or any part thereof, or any software derived therefrom, is restricted to be used by Licensee only and may not include the commercial use of LANCE.
7. LANCE can only be acquired from Licensor. If a third party asks for the distribution, their requests are to be forwarded to Licensor.
8. Copies of LANCE can only be made for backup or archival purposes. In making any backup or archive of LANCE, no copyright or confidential notices may be removed.
9. No part of LANCE may be sold or included in any product without prior written approval of Licensor.
10. No technical information about LANCE, its tools and technology, internal architecture, intermediate representation, and library components and interfaces may be disclosed to third parties without prior written approval of Licensor. This restriction does not apply to authorized material already publicly available in the form of technical articles, books, presentations, and WWW pages.
11. Title, ownership rights, and intellectual property rights of LANCE remain with Licensor.
12. Licensee may apply bug fixes, portability fixes, and other modifications provided by Licensor. The LANCE software modified in such a way shall still be considered bound by this agreement. Licensee may modify his copy of LANCE in any way, provided that Licensor is informed and allowed to include the modifications as a part of LANCE, and the modified LANCE is only used within Licensee's corporation or organization.
13. The use of LANCE must be properly acknowledged in any documentation or publications of the research involving LANCE.
14. Licensor provides LANCE for research purposes and under no circumstances will be held liable for any use of LANCE for any purpose.
15. LANCE is provided as-is. The validity and correctness of the software are not guaranteed. LANCE shall be licensed to Licensee without any warranties, including without limitation any warranties of merchantability for a particular purpose.

16. Licensor will attempt to include in LANCE any bug fixes that are brought to his attention, but Licensor makes no promises in this regard. If such updates occur, Licensor makes no guarantee that they will be generally announced.

Licensee warrants and represents that he has read and agrees to the above stated terms and conditions and that the person signing this License Agreement is an authorized signatory of Licensee.
